1) Answer: A
Solution: After rearrangement of the sentences the paragraph seems to highlight about the organisational elections within Congress. It also pointed out certain reasons and facts what has happened to the working committee presidential post. Thus, the correct sequences of the sentences are I-IV-II-III-VI

In this context the first sentence should be an introductory one explaining what topic is to be discussed inside the paragraph, and sentence I seems perfect fit.

Therefore, option A is the correct answer.

2) Answer: B
Solution: After rearrangement of the sentences the paragraph seems to highlight about the organisational elections within Congress. It also pointed out certain reasons and facts what has happened to the working committee presidential post. Thus, the correct sequences of the sentences are I-IV-II-III-VI

In this context the third sentence should highlight the reason why the organisational elections must take place, and sentence II provides one of the chief reasons.

Therefore, option B is the correct answer.

3) Answer: B
Solution: After rearrangement of the sentences the paragraph seems to highlight about the organisational elections within Congress. It also pointed out certain reasons and facts what has happened to the working committee presidential post. Thus, the correct sequences of the sentences are I-IV-II-III-VI

The second sentence should hold the objective for organizational elections, and in this context, sentence IV seems perfect fit.

Therefore, option B is the correct answer.

4) Answer: D
Solution: After rearrangement of the sentences the paragraph seems to highlight about the organisational elections within Congress. It also pointed out certain reasons and facts what has happened to the working committee presidential post. Thus, the correct sequences of the sentences are I-IV-II-III-VI

The penultimate sentence of the paragraph must describe the present scenario of the part and at the same time highlight it as another reason for the organisational election. To this sentence V seems perfect fit.

Therefore, option D is the correct answer.
5) Answer: E
Solution: After rearrangement of the sentences the paragraph seems to highlight about the organisational elections within Congress. It also pointed out certain reasons and facts what has happened to the working committee presidential post. Thus, the correct sequences of the sentences are I-IV-II-III-VI.
The conclusive sentence is no doubt an extension of the pre conclusive sentence, putting up a statement about the present condition of the party. To which sentence VI seems perfect fit.
Therefore, option E is the correct answer.

6) Answer: A
After rearrangement correct sentence will be “Also, jotting down notes for your senior son ward rounds is probably not the most important thing.”

7) Answer: B
After rearrangement correct sentence will be “Its chief feature is that the reader is given the opportunity to play along and engage in the process of deduction.”

8) Answer: C
After rearrangement correct sentence will be “Assuming that all these reasons are true, the fact remains that there is an Urgent need to check the accelerated costs and initiate suitable measures.”

9) Answer: C
Solution: ‘By’ is the correct preposition to use before the noun in identifying the agent performing an action. All other prepositions are incorrect to the context.
Therefore, option C is the correct answer.

10) Answer: D
Solution: ‘within reviews’ change the meaning of the sentence, as the panel was formed to review the norms. The sentence is in past perfect continuous and thus ‘with reviewing’ is the best option to use.
Therefore, option D is the correct answer.

11) Answer: C
Solution: ‘Arguing’ in the context of this sentence, thus out of context. The word ‘intriguing’ should be followed by an article to make it grammatically correct in this context, thus ‘is’ is the only choice.
Therefore, option C is the correct answer.

12) Answer: A
Solution: ‘powers’ meaning authority that is given or delegated to a person or body, has similar meaning with authorities, thus, both sentences are correct. ‘With’ is the incorrect preposition to use in this context.
Therefore, option A is the correct answer.

13) Answer: B
Here, we need to select the word from the given options, such that the word perfectly fits both the blanks and makes it grammatically and contextually correct.
‘Crane your neck’ in the first blank means ‘put the neck out to see something’ [Fits in the first blank]
Crane in the second blank means a Bird [Fits in the second blank]
Hence, “crane” is the correct answer.

14) Answer: A
Here, we need to select the word from the given options, such that the word perfectly fits both the blanks and makes it grammatically and contextually correct.
Here in the first blank means “date” means to go for an outing [fits in the first blank]
In the second blank means ‘date’ means a fruit (fits in the second blank)
Thus, “date” is the correct answer.

15) Answer: C
Here, we need to select the word from the given options, such that the word perfectly fits both the blanks and makes it grammatically and contextually correct.
Point in the first blank means edge [fits in the first blank]
Point in the second blank means to show (fits in the second blank)
Thus, “point” is the correct answer.

16) Answer: D
Here, we need to select the word from the given options, such that the word perfectly fits both the blanks and makes it grammatically and contextually correct.
Right in the second blank means Correct (fits in the first blank).

Right turn in the second blank means Direction (fits in the second blank)
Thus “right” is the correct answer.

17) Answer: B
Solution:
In the given sentence, only ‘scandal’ makes it grammatically as well as contextually correct.
Option A is incorrect because condemn means express complete disapproval of; censure which is contextually wrong.
Option B is the correct alternative among the following as scandal perfectly fits in the blank both grammatically and contextually
Option C is incorrect because gratify means give (someone) pleasure or satisfaction.
Option D is incorrect because parleys means a conference between opposing sides in a dispute, especially a discussion of terms for an armistice which is contextually wrong.

18) Answer: E
Solution:
‘Recognition’ means identification of someone or something or person from previous encounters or knowledge. ‘a recognition of the need’ will be the perfect choice here. 2-4 must be interchanged. So option E will be the correct choice here.
After making the replacements, the thus formed sentence is “Such solidarity is a recognition of the need to: prevent further damage and destruction, rescue and evacuate affected people to safer zones, and salvage belongings and meet their minimal survival needs. “

19) Answer: A
Solution:
‘Countries’ is a countable noun so ‘many’ should be used with it. So option A will be the correct choice here.

20) Answer: D
Solution:
In the given sentence, only ‘cognisance’ makes it grammatically as well as contextually correct.
Option A): is incorrect because reprimand means a formal expression of disapproval which does not fit here.
Option B): is incorrect as debate does not make any sense here.
Option C): is incorrect as ‘smacks’ means a sharp slap or blow, typically one given with the palm of the hand which does not fit here.
Option D): is the correct alternative among the following as ‘cognisance’ means knowledge or awareness which fits here both grammatically and contextually.

21) Answer: D
Solution:
‘Estimated’ spelling is incorrect. The correct spelling must be ‘estimated’ which means (of a value or number) roughly calculated; approximate. So option D will be the correct choice here.

22) Answer: C
Solution:
Before the blank it says ‘advance purchase agreements that some countries have negotiated with’ and part C says with whom. So option C will be the correct choice here.
After filling the blank, the correct sentence will be ‘The advance purchase agreements that some countries have negotiated with pharmaceutical companies exemplify such adverse trends.’.

23) Answer: E
Solution:
After ‘has to be’ we need a verb in past participle form. ‘has to be accepted' makes perfect sense. 3-4 will be the pair. So option E will be the correct choice.
After the replacement the thus formed sentence is “There has to be prioritisation for high-risk groups in all countries, especially in the least developed, low- and middle-income nations, that framework has to be accepted by the global community without dispute.”

24) Answer: A
There is an error in the Part A of the given sentence. We are talking about Doctors in Lagos State going on strike. In this part the preposition that should be used is ‘in’ instead of ‘on’. There is no other error other than this.
The correct sentence would be: Doctors in Lagos State embarked on a three-day strike from July 13 to 15, to protest the absence of adequate safety and welfare measures for doctors working with COVID-19 patients.
This makes Option A the correct choice among the given options.

25) Answer: E
There is no error in any part of the given sentence. Therefore no correction is required.
This makes Option E the correct choice among the given options.

26) Answer: D
There is an error in the Part D of the given sentence. We are talking about the decline in the economy of Thailand. In this part the preposition that should be used is ‘in’ instead of ‘at’. There is no other error other than this. The correct sentence would be:
With the decline in the Thai and worldwide economy, businesses and factories have closed and migrant workers have been among the first people lay off. As Thailand has entered the worst economic recession in its history, migrants who normally work for daily wages are facing tough times.
This makes Option D the correct choice among the given options.

27) Answer: B
There is an error in the Part B of the given sentence. We are talking about providing treatment facility in Dalai District for sick trees. In this part the helping verb ‘were’ has to be replaced with ‘where’ as it indicates a place/position. There are no other changes to be made.
The correct sentence would be:
Dalai also stated that the Department will be issuing a dedicated phone number where people can inform the department if they come across any such sick tree. The department will then send experts for the treatment of the tree.
This makes Option B the correct choice among the given options.

28) Answer: B
There is an error in the Part B of the given sentence. We are talking about the agreement signed between India and Maldives. In this part the word ‘among’ is used which is wrong the correct word is ‘between’.
When we compare two things we use between, and when we compare more than two things we use among. There are no other changes to be made.
The correct sentence would be:
The contract is a part of the MoU signed between India and the Maldives in 2019 to set up three neighbourhood fish processing plants costing around USD 1.5 million in Maradhoo, Hithadhoo and Hulhudhoo.
This makes Option B the correct choice among the given options.

29) Answer: E
Ubiquitous is described as existing or being everywhere at the same time. So, all the statements have used the word correctly.

30) Answer: D
Serenade is to perform a song for a special person while it does not fit contextually in statement C. So, only A and B employ the word correctly.
